WEDDING SITES

Imperial Ballroom

We are proud to offer the largest hotel ballroom in Calgary. Elegant and versatile, the Imperial Ballroom boasts 13,500 square feet of usable space, 21 foot ceilings with multiple hang points, pillar-free floor space and warm, inviting colours. Easily divisible into as many as nine separate sections, the Imperial Ballroom converts quickly to adjust to your needs.

Grand Foyer

Adjacent to the Imperial Ballroom is our magnificent Grand Foyer. This space is ideal for a pre-function cocktail reception. The Grand Foyer also includes a coat check and welcome area.

The Atrium

Create a memorable event for up to 80 guests in the Atrium. This spectacular reception venue features a brick accent wall, natural wood accents and windows that wrap from the floor to over your head, providing the most stunning views of the city.

The Gallery

Put your good taste on display at a reception style event for 80 guests in The Gallery. Once reserved for talented artists to display their work, this space overlooks Stephen Avenue and boasts eclectic artwork and original sandstone walls, with tall ceilings.

Thomsons Restaurant

In 1893, Melville Patrick Thomson and James Arthur Thomson built one of Calgary's earliest sandstone buildings. While it originally housed the Thomson Brother's Bookstore, this building is now our home. Nestled within this late nineteenth century sandstone architecture, we have completed extensive renovations in 2013 taking care to showcase our history and traditional Western ranching lifestyle. Exclusively featuring collection of award winning photography by renowned artist, Joanne Meeker, the walls are adorned with oversized timeless sepia portraits of western life, ranching, and cowboys, set within a backdrop of the majestic mountains and glacial rivers of Alberta. A perfect and unique venue for your special day. Restaurant buyouts are available any day of the week.

Additional Venues

These unique spaces are only a small representation of the possibilities we can offer. Please ask your Catering Manager to recommend the perfect space for your special day and to arrange a time for you to view the hotel.
